Linda Pounds

Linda,

I think you are a very nice and kind girl. Sometimes you are a kind of stupid and [redacted] ignorant child. Ha.
I'd have really enjoyed knowing you were a friend and class mate. If you keep going at the speed you are going now you won't ever get married. Ha. But maybe some day some stupid soul will come along.
Stay the way you are now
no matter how the going goes.
I hope we shall always be friends as we are now.
We have had lots of fun together and I have enjoyed it even though we got into trouble a few times. I hope all you have all the happiness you can possible have now and in the future.
I wish you the best of luck always.

always a friend

Lucy

P. S. Lots of luck with S.C.

Linda,

Youre a real nice girl. We have had a lot of fun and I hope we can continue to have fun. I hope you get Debol Day Queen. We have always been friends. We can tell each other our problems and try to help each other. I hope we will always be friends. May God Bless You.

Love,
Paula

you are a real sweet and nice girl. Best of luck through school & through life. God Bless you and guide you.
a friend
Butch

To Linda,
We've been friends a long time &
I know we will always be. You're one of the smallest & cutest I've known.
God bless you,

Elaine

Linda,
You're a great girl
with a great personality.
Good luck to you in future years. You're a wonderful person.
Barbara

Linda,
You're a wonderful person and I'm glad we became friends
this school year.
Don't change
at all you do.
Love,
Bonnie

Linda,
Though we don't know each other very well, I'm sure you are very sweet because you have so many friends. Maybe we can become good friends
this year. Becky

Through These Doors . . .

Through these open doors, many students have passed on their journey down the long halls of education. These students have worked, studied, played, and above all, gained knowledge and experience that can never be taken from them. These open doors stand for the opening of a new and better world through education. "Enter through these doors to learn; leave through these doors to serve."

. . . Pass Moments to Remember

The last fleeting moments of a senior year

Dedicated to . . .

MR. FRED DOUGLAS, better known to D.H.S. students as "Brother Fred," is a teacher, a preacher, an advisor, and a friend. In the classroom, he is a teacher who tries to instill in his pupils an interest in learning, as well as the fundamentals of an education. As a preacher, he tries to show others the way to happiness which he himself has found. As an advisor, he tries to help all persons in any way in which he is capable. And last, but not least, he is the best friend which any student could ever hope to find. Whether he is looked upon as Mr. Douglas, Brother Douglas, or just good ole Brother Fred, he is a man of strong character, with an unchangeable, warm smile and helping hand. So to this man who is himself so dedicated to his work, we, the annual staff, dedicate the 1966 LUMBERJACK.

Homecoming Highlights of '65

HOMECOMING brought a victory which was not obtained, but renewed a fighting spirit long to be remembered. The day brought the beauty of queens, the precision of the band, the spirit of the crowd, and the excitement of the game. The thrills, the cheers, the anxiety, and yet the disappointment, were all significant of the 1965 HOMECOMING.

QUEEN PATSY smiles amid tears of happiness as she is presented her flowers and her crown.
